I, _____, understand that if I am elected to the position of senior class representative, I must perform the duties specified for that position in the Cypress Bay High School representative requirements and duties lists, as well as adhere to the ethical behavior agreement. I also understand that failure to abide by all the provisions set forth in this packet will result in my removal from the selection process and/or removal from office.

1. The Senior Class Representatives must understand that this job entails a massive time commitment before and after school in preparation for Homecoming (September to November 2019) and Prom (May 2020). Additionally you will be called upon for help with various fundraisers/

We understand that many are heavily involved in extracurricular activities. However, in setting up for the aforementioned events, attendance is absolutely necessary. Do not apply for this office if you know that you won't be able to put the necessary time in.

2. There will be an interview process following the submission of your application. Please understand that not everyone who applies and is interviewed will be selected to be a Senior Class Representative.
